

EXCELLENCE IN MAINE VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS EDUCATION
Art Display
Specifications and Requirements

NUMBER OF DISPLAY HOLDERS: 63 (each district will submit 21 pieces)
(11 are landscape (horizontal); 13 are portrait (vertical); remaining are either) – Total: 63 pieces of artwork
SIZE (opening) OF DISPLAY HOLDERS: 18" by 24"
ELIGIBILITY: PreK-12 student artwork

Guidelines:

- Mount artwork on 18"X24" construction paper (nothing heavier) and ready to be slipped into the artwork holders. Only ONE piece per frame please!
- Label each work with the student's full name and school.
- Student Statement: Please provide a brief (150 characters maximum) statement or quote from the student about their thoughts either toward making art or about the specific piece that they are submitting. This statement should be entered into the google doc (please check spelling and grammar as they will be printed and hung with the artwork).
- Fill in and spell check ALL the information on the google doc – click here to access – make sure you are working on the correct tab for your exhibit.
- Please include a list of the students with their name, school, and grade in one document
- Please include a CD or thumb drive with the photographed work for use online or please email the images (be sure and have them labeled with the name and grade of artist).
- Please include release forms with permission to post the work online (I can provide a form if you'd like)
- Deliver artwork to the address below a few days before scheduled exhibit. (Artwork will be returned within a week of exhibit completion).

Other information:

- The artists and their families will be invited to a Celebration of Arts Education reception in the Hall of Flags where the students will be recognized for their accomplishments.
- The program includes a music, dance, and/or theatre presentation. Please consider asking a teacher at your school about the possibilities for this portion. We can work out the details.
- Contact hours are provided to teachers for the time committed.
